These criteria are in compliance with requirements of the Federal Low Income Housing Tax Credit Program and the Tax Credit Allocation Committee of the State of California,

POLICY ON NON-DISCRIMINATION

With respect to the treatment of applicants, the Management Agent will not discriminate against any individual or family because of race, color, creed, national or ethnic origin or ancestry, religion, sex, sexual preference, gender identity, age, disability, handicap, military status, source of income, marital status or presence of children in a household, acquired immune deficiency syndrome (AIDS) or AIDS-related conditions (ARC), or any other arbitrary basis. All criteria shall be applied equitably and all information considered on an applicant shall be related solely to the attributes and behavior of individual members of the household as they may affect residency.

APPLICATION PROCESSING PROCEDURES

A waiting list will be established by the Property in the order applications are received in accordance with the Marketing Plan.

The waiting lists will track applicant name and contact information, household size, household income or AMI (Area Median Income), status of application, regulatory agency preferences, and any other information deemed necessary for the property or specified in regulatory agency requirements.

Applicants will be invited for an interview in the order of the waiting list and in accordance to regulatory agency preference. However, eligible applicants will be offered an apartment in the order in which their applications have been approved by our Compliance Department, according to the highest preference category, and readiness to move-in. In other words, on a first qualified, first offered basis.

If an applicant is eligible for tenancy, but no appropriately size or AMI designation is available, they will be kept on the wait list in their original position.

Agent will respect the bedroom size option chosen by the applicant unless such choice is contrary to the development's occupancy standards. Persons with a disability that require an adaptable or accessible unit may select a standard unit or an accessible unit, at their discretion.

Periodically, letters will be sent to applicants to update their information and confirm they remain interested in applying for a unit. Failure to respond to the Agent's notice to contact the project will result in removal from the waiting list. It is the obligation of the applicant to notify management of any changes to their address or phone number.

OCCUPANCY GUIDELINES

The following guidelines are set with regard to number of occupants per dwelling unit. These guidelines are set to avoid overcrowding or underutilization of limited affordable housing opportunities. Section 8305 (b) of the Uniform Multifamily Regulations states that the minimum number of persons in household per the chart below. However, it also states that a sponsor may assign tenant households to units of sizes other than those indicated as appropriate if the Sponsor reasonably determines that special circumstances warrant such an assignment and the reasons are documented in the tenant's file.

Units will be occupied in accordance with the following standards:

No. Bedrooms	Minimum	Maximum

There are 10 units designed specifically for the mobility, sight and hearing impaired.

Wherever possible, we will offer an accessible unit to an eligible individual whose disability requires the accessibility features of the particular unit; when offering an accessible rental unit to applicants without disabilities, we will require such applicants to agree to move to a non-accessible unit when the accessible unit is needed by a disabled household.

After move-in, all applicants will be required to submit documents for an annual recertification. At recertification, rents will be adjusted to the most appropriate layer for the household income. Rent will only go down if there is an available slot in the lower AMI level.

However, the applicant must be prepared to demonstrate that they are actively engaged in an art form, are willing and able to contribute to a cooperative and creative environment, and show a commitment to engage in the greater community.
